penalty of these offenses is in excess of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against defendant as to both dangerousness and flight risk, under 18 U.S. C. §3142(e).

- 2. Defendant has no current ties to this District. He resided in Washington State for approximately 8 years but moved to Porterville, California because, according to his statement to pretrial services, he has no family ties or any other connection to the state. He has a former wife and two children who reside in Washington, with whom he has not had recent contact and has no contact with other family members who still reside in Washington, including his mother and halfbrothers. His ties to California are limited to a short-term relationship with an individual with whom he has been living for several months. The defendant does not have a regular work history and has no reported income.
- 3. Taken as a whole, the record does not effectively rebut the presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with (2) counsel;
- On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the (3) Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is
